

29 May 2004 – Flag Planting at Wyuka Cemetery

Seniors (group at left): Capt Carol Jensen, FO Mikael Piper, Capt Kathy Hubbell – Front Row
L-R Maj Dan Kirwan, 2Lt Steve Hubbell, Maj Carol Marxsen – Middle Row
Lt Col Darrell Jensen – Back Row

Cadets (saluting): Carly Persell, Kira Hubbell, Ryan Hattan, Jessica Ericksen, Andrew Kocarnik, L-R Thomas Mohr, Emily Casne, Philip Kocher, Shayne McCullough, Shawn Gallagher,
Weston Woldt

Cadets Kira Hubbell (bending) and Shayne McCullough (kneeling in foreground) place flags next to headstones in Soldiers' Circle as FO Mikael Piper, Maj Carol Marxsen and Maj Dan Kirwan (standing, L-R) stand by with extra flags.

Cadets' reflections appear as ghostly images at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall. The traveling exhibit was on display at Lincoln's Wyuka Cemetery during Memorial Day weekend.

Lt Col Darrell Jensen pays his respects.

Cadets Kira Hubbell, Thomas Mohr, Carly Persell, Andrew Kocarnik, Shayne McCullough, Ryan Hattan, Emily Casne, Jessica Ericksen, Weston Woldt and Philip Kocher (L-R)

Headstones at Soldiers Circle, decorated and properly honored for Memorial Day.

26-27 May 2004 Relief Efforts, Hallam, Nebraska

Cadet Ben Ericksen and Capt Kathy Hubbell patrol a sector in Hallam, Nebraska on 26 May 2004.

Cadets Ryan Hattan and Shawn Gallagher radio in a request for assistance. A “thank you” sign on the roof of a damaged house expresses the appreciation of Hallam residents.

One of many messages of gratitude.

Hallam's warning siren in a pile of debris.

Grain elevator and freight train lie in ruins along tracks running through the town of Hallam.

Debris was everywhere!

24 May 2004 Lincoln Composite Squadron Open House

Open House visitors enjoyed the flight simulators provided by Mr. Chuck Lewis of the Lincoln Starbase Program.

FO Mikael Piper (who seems to have lost her hat) and C/Amn Ben Ericksen acquaint an Open House visitor with the ELT/"Elper" equipment on the grounds of the Air National Guard Base.

Lancaster County Commissioner Bob Workman visits with Cadet Weston Woldt's father during the Open House.